

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Committee	Date of Event	Brief Description	Annual/One Time/Ongoing	Costs Associated	Notes
BETA		Peace Gardens	Ongoing	$10,000
Fort Erie	January 2012	Mayor's Proclamation ceremony at Town Hall	One time	TBD	Needs: communications pieces i.e. press release & background; re-enactors; resource material & experts
Fort Erie	February 2012	Announcement of Crafter's Competition	One time	$3,000	Prizes announced in July; Needs: Communications, media releases
Fort Erie	March 2012	Announcement of Food & Wine Competition	One time	$5,000	Judging takes place during Siege weekend in August Needs: NPC, communications & marketing, Project Committee
Fort Erie	January-June 2012	School presentations/activities	On-going	$5,000	Needs: AV Presentation/Re-enactors or 1812 demo experts

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Fort Erie	January–July 2012	Announcement of Beard & Period Costume Competition	One time	$2,000	Needs: Communications and publicity, Project Committee
Fort Erie	March–April 2012	Bicentennial Hockey Tournament: Canada vs. USA	One time	$2,000	Needs: Town support for Leisureplex availability; sponsorship from service clubs/hockey association; communications products; trophy donation
Fort Erie	January–December 2012	Driving/walking tours of historical sites in Fort Erie & around Niagara including Peace Gardens	Ongoing	TBD	Needs: support of NPC and Legacy Council
Fort Erie	May 2012	Fort Erie Museums Month Theme: people of Fort Erie in 1812	Ongoing	TBD	Encourage everyone to go to Fort Erie Museums Needs: FE Museums, NPC, Legacy Council, communications & marketing strategies
Fort Erie	May–June 2012	Two Public Lectures i) Fort Erie in 1812, its citizens and the impact of the War ii) The Native community in 1812, its view of the War and its impact	One time	$2,000	Needs: Native/Historical resources, Fort Erie Library/Schools, communications & marketing

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Fort Erie	June 1, 2012	Native Allies Day: Commemoration of the role played by our Native Allies in the War of 1812	One time	$10,000	Needs: Project Committee, NPC, Fort Erie Native Centre
Fort Erie	July 1, 2012	Grande Parade: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Military bands from across Canada & US - Military Regts. That participated in the War (e.g. L&W) - Re-enactors - Replicas of farm equipment etc. circa 1812 - Community & school floats with 1812 theme - Chapters of period bear & dress participants - Native community participation in parade & displays at the Old Fort 	One time	$80,000	Support needs: Friendship Festival, Town of Fort Erie, NPC, Legacy Council, schools, service clubs, private sectors, Chamber of Commerce Note: This event will be the centerpiece of the FE Bicentennial Celebration & will require a substantial number of volunteers, support groups, logistics and planning
Fort Erie	August 2012	Siege Month		$8,000	Needs: support of NPC, 1812 Project Committee
Fort Erie	August 2012	1812 Golf Tournament <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - To take place at a local course with league organization & Project Committee support 	One time	$4,000	Format TBD Needs: 1812 Project Committee, gold leagues, Chamber of Commerce
Fort Erie	September 2012	1812 dinner and public debate: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Ticketed dinner featuring 1812 style food & debate on the subject "Who Won the War of 1812" 	One time	$5,000	Support needs: Academic community, Project Committee, private sector sponsorship, Fort Erie Museums, Chamber of Commerce

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Fort Erie	November 2012	Live Theatre Production: 1812 One-two act play on 1812 theme	One time	TBD	Support needs: Project Committee, Fort Erie museums, Fort Erie theatres
Grimsby	June 8, 2013	Engagement at the Forty	One time	TBD
Grimsby	October 13, 2012	"Hands Across the Waters" Folk Music Celebration: 200 Years of Peace	One time	TBD	Performers from Canada and USA, requires wide advertising
Grimsby	June 9-July 8, 2012	"Following the Canadian Dream: Depictions of the Canadian Landscape from the GPAG Permanent Collection" curated by Grade 11 & 12 art students from Blessed Trinity High School in Grimsby	One time	TBD	Grimsby Public Art Gallery
Grimsby	February 8-March 24, 2013	"Sites Re-seen: on the Trail of the War of 1812", Laurel Campbell, watercolours; Todd Ainslie, pinhole photographs. The artists have painted and photographed sites in the Niagara region relevant to the War of 1812; some images include historic buildings or landmarks that still stand; other sites are distinguished from the surrounding landscape only by the human memory that is attached to them, documenting both what remains and what has disappeared.	One time	TBD	Grimsby Public Art Gallery

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Grimsby	June 14-July 28, 2013	A project working in collaboration with Native Arts Groups to explore what the War of 1812 meant to Aboriginal residents of Niagara.	One time	TBD	Grimsby Public Art Gallery
Grimsby	August 2-September 15, 2012	"What Laura Heard" (working title): Duncan McDonald and Arnold McBay. A multi-media installation inspired by Canadian heroine, Laura Secord, whose historic walk through the bush was triggered by an act of eaves-dropping. The artists consider contemporary forms of eaves-dropping - particularly sophisticated electronics and internet-based intelligence gathering and how this affects our ability to maintain privacy in our lives	One time	TBD	Grimsby Public Art Gallery
Grimsby	April-May 2014	"Flight of the Wayzgoose" (working title): a Niagara region book arts exchange. Working with the Western New York Book Arts Collaborative and a number of Ontario book artists the GPAG will coordinate an artistic exchange celebrating cross-boarder peace and cooperation through the art of the hand-made book	One time	TBD	Grimsby Public Art Gallery

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Grimsby	December 1, 2012	Grimsby Christmas 1812: a music/ drama event held in various church venues <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Christmas audiences will move from church to church with a theme of a carol of the period - Conductor/composer Ronald Vigue of the Atlantic Symphony Orchestra will develop an original work version of the carol at each venue - Various soloists - Short, original plays by Liz Benneian set in a famr home in the area, soldiers in the field, sailors on ships, Native activities 	One time or annual	$30,000	Possibly for 2013 and 2014 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Fundraising event for local charity
Grimsby	Various times throughout Bicentennial	Brunch with Brock <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - A most unusual dinner theatre hosted by General Brock, his locations successor General Sheaffe, and Brock's mistress, Miss Shaw. - Feast on original 1812 delicacies and entertainment will be by various famous contemporary artists, writers, musicians, scientists, inventors, discussing news/gossip of the day 	Ongoing	$25,000
Niagara Falls	July 25, 2011	Battle of Lundy's Lane Commemoration	Annual	TBD
Niagara Falls		TBC		TBD

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Niagara Parks Commission	Second week of August	Siege of Fort Erie Reenactment: Four reenactments to take place over the weekend <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Buck's Surrender of Old Fort Erie, Saturday, 10 a.m. 2. The Battle of Chippawa and Lundy's Lane, Saturday, 2 p.m. 3. Drummond's Night Assault, Saturday, 8 p.m. 4. The American Sortie, Sunday, 2 p.m. 	Annual	$50,000
Niagara Parks Commission	July 5, 2010	Battle of Chippawa Reenactment: Reenactment and Memorial Service on Chippawa Monument Battle Grounds. Memorial Service held by Rev. Powell; special guest speaker Sherman Zavitz; performance by Fort George Fife & Drum Corps.	Annual	$5,000	Mainly NPC event but with assistance from the Willoughby Museum & Chippawa location
Niagara Parks Commission	November 28, 2012	Battle of Frenchman's Creek Commemoration: Federal Plaque Memorial to the failed American invasion.	One time	$5,000	The Americans attempted to destroy a bridge along the Creek which would in part cut ties between Chippawa & Fort Erie. It was meant to pave the way for a larger invasion into the Niagara Region later in 1812, but its failure led to the cancellation of further invasions until 1813.

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Niagara Parks Commission	Third weekend in June	Laura Secord events: Reenactment at the homestead, Bruce Trail Hike, Thorold and Beaverdams Historical Society Event	Annual	$50,000
Niagara Parks Commission	August 12, 1814	Capture of the Ohio & Somers	One time	$10,000
Niagara Parks Commission	October 13, 2012	Reenactment of the reinforcements making their way to the Heights with stops at McFarland & Secord House	One time	$25,000
Niagara Parks Commission with partners & Canadian Consulate	December 2015	Commemoration/celebration of signing of Treaty of Ghent - Candlelight, fireworks, & entertainment all along the Niagara River	One time	$1M
Niagara-on-the-Lake	December 19, 2013	Drummond's Winter Campaign/Raid on Fort Niagara	One time	TBD
NOTL		TBC		TBD
Parks Canada, NPC, Friends of Fort George	October 13, 2012	Scout Militia Fort George/Queenston Heights	Annual	TBD
Port Colborne	May 1, 2010 - October 16, 2012	Rededication of the Zavitz mill memorial. This mill was active throughout the war and was one of the few in the peninsula not destroyed by the marauders during the conflict	One-Time	$20,000	Total project costs of 1812 initiatives from Port Colborne are expected to be approximately $27,250.00

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

Port Colborne	May 1, 2010 - October 16, 2012	Interactive period recruiting tent/camp site including a period military band, where citizens will be able to pledge their support for 200 more years of friendship and cooperation along the world's longest undefended border	One time	See "Notes"	Total project costs of 1812 initiatives from Port Colborne are expected to be approximately $27,250.00
Port Colborne	May 1, 2010 - October 16, 2012	Canal Days Festival will also serve to promote the important marine role and the tactical importance of the Great lakes in the conflict, with particular emphasis on the battle of Lake Erie	Annual	See "Notes"	Total project costs of 1812 initiatives from Port Colborne are expected to be approximately $27,250.00
Six Nations		Re-enactor Training Program		$27,000	$5,000 already received from U.E.L
Six Nations with Niagara and Tuscarora		Lacrosse		$1.82M

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

St. Catharines	June 2012	Mayor's Proclamation/opening ceremony at City Hall	One time	TBD	Media release and event needs to be planned, support of the Project Committee, City staff (eg. tourism, culture committee), school boards, Lock 3 museum, city's Heritage Committee, First Nations representatives, re-enactors
St. Catharines	TBD	Book launch: annotated publication in preparation about the men of the Lincoln Militia, and other possible titles	One time	TBD	Media release and the event need to be planned, support of the Mayholme Foundation, Project Committee, the City, Lock 3 Museum, local retailers, Lincoln & Welland Regiment, re-enactors

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

St. Catharines	TBD	Educational programs launch: e.g. museum exhibits, school programs, library lecture series	Ongoing	TBD	Support needs: Project Committee, School Boards, Lock 3 Museum, Project Committee, work with First Nations representatives, library staff
St. Catharines	TBD	Genealogical Certificate Program launch	One time	TBD	Media release and the event need to be planned, support of the Mayholme Foundation, Project Committee, the City, Lock 3 Museum, local OGS branch
St. Catharines	TBD	Art Show, 1812 theme	Annual from 2012-2014	TBD	Media release/events need to be planned, Support needs: Project Committee, local arts community, school boards, Lock 3 museum, City's Culture Committee, First Nations artists invited to participate
St. Catharines	Summer 2013	Tall ships	One time	TBD	Media release and event needs to be planned, support of the Project Committee, City staff (eg. tourism), school boards, Lock 3 museum, Seaway

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

St. Catharines	TBD/June 2013	Plaques and trail marking	Ongoing	TBD	Media release/events need to be planned, support of the Project Committee, local arts community, school boards, Lock 3 museum, City's Heritage Committee, other City Staff, co-ordinate event (eg. Laura Secord plaque unveiling) with Town of NOTL and City of Thorold to coincide with Beaverdams events in 2013, Victoria Lawn staff, re-enactors , OGS reps
St. Catharines	TBD	Re-enactments & guided tours (e.g. ghost tours)	Ongoing	TBD	Media release and events need to be planned, support of the Project Committee, City staff, school boards, Lock 3 Museum, Victoria Lawn staff, St. George's Church, local re-enactors, City's Heritage Committee
St. Catharines	TBD	Unveiling of downtown banners	One time or Ongoing	TBD	Media release and events need to be prepared, support of the Project Committee, City staff, Heritage Committee, Culture Committee, arts

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

					community, downtown association, local retailers
St. Catharines	September 2012	Grape & Wine Festival, promote 1812 theme, develop 1812 "vintage" wine	One time or ongoing during Bicentennial	TBD	Media release and event/s need to be prepared, support of the Project Committee, City staff, various City committees, Grape and Wine festival staff, downtown association, re-enactors
St. Catharines	2013	Town Crier's competition	One time	TBD	Media release and event needs to be prepared, support of Project Committee, City staff and committees, Mark Molnar (Town Crier)
St. Catharines	TBD	Unveiling of Peace Garden	One time	TBD	Media release and event needs to be prepared, support of Project Committee, City staff and committees e.g. Green Committee, Parks and Rec., Horticultural Society, local gardening enthusiasts, re-enactors
St. Catharines	May 2012	Folk Arts Festival, promote 1812 theme	One time or ongoing during	TBD	Media release and event needs to be prepared, support of Project

Niagara DRAFT

Submitted as of July 23, 2010

			Bicentennial		Committee, City staff and committees, Parks and Rec, Folk Arts staff, downtown association, re-enactors
St. Catharines	December 2014	Treaty of Ghent celebration, possible fireworks display to celebrate the end of the war and conclude the bicentennial celebrations	One time	TBD	Media release and event needs to be prepared, support of Project Committee, City staff and committees, Parks and Rec., re-enactors, Lincoln and Welland Regiment,
St. Catharines	TBD	Brown-Jouppien house, Norton cabin opening	One time	TBD	Early planning stages, possible acquisition of this historic property and houses for use as an 1812 era museum.
St. David's Lions Club	July 18, 2014	Burning of St. David's	One time	TBD
Thorold/Six Nations	June 24, 2010	Battle of Beaverdams Park	Annual	TBD
Welland	October 19-20, 2011	Battle of Cooks Mills	Annual	TBD
WNED		Documentary	One time	$250,000

Total Balance:

$3,460,250.00