

Veterans ride free to Warriors' Day Parade

announcement

GO Transit values the sacrifice of our war veterans. It's an honour to recognize your valour, and we'd like to show our gratitude by offering you and one companion free transportation to this year's Warriors' Day Parade at the CNE.

When can I ride free?

On Saturday, August 22, 2009, you may ride free all day on GO Transit.

Who can ride free?

You and one companion may ride free. Others travelling with you must buy tickets or passes.

How do I get on the GO?

You and your companion can take any GO Train or GO Bus anytime on Warriors' Day. There is no need to buy a ticket.

On the train: Simply get on the train — you don't need to identify yourself unless asked while aboard the train.

On the bus: Identify yourself as a veteran to the bus driver.

How will you know I'm a veteran?

Please wear your medals, beret, blazer, uniform, or something else that clearly identifies you as a war veteran.

What about the families of deceased veterans?

The immediate families of deceased veterans may also ride free. Please make sure you carry something to identify your relation to the deceased veteran, such as an identification card or service papers.
